

Federal Trade Commission/Office of the Secretary, Room H-135
(Annex W)

Re: Business Opportunity Rule, R511993

600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW

Washington, DC 20580

RE: Business Opportunity Rule, R511993

Dear Sir or Madam:

I am writing this letter because I am concerned about the proposed Business Opportunity Rule R511993. I believe that in its presented form, it could prevent me from continuing as a Distributor of Xango International and destroy my business.

My name is Samuel J. Oaks and I have been an Independent Distributor for Xango international for over a year. The results that I have seen personally from taking our product have been phenomenal. I believe your proposal will totally stifle my opportunity to share my awesome results with others.

I originally started using the product for health reasons. I have a conditioned known as Essential Tremors. It is hereditary from my mother's side of the family. This all natural juice is the only thing that has helped without harmful side-effects. Now I have an opportunity to share with others and offer them hope as well as a way to earn additional income. We will desperately need this.

Please don't destroy my small business we need it!

This waiting period will give the public the idea that there's something wrong with me or our plan and also reflects badly on me. I also think this seven-day waiting period is unnecessary, because Xango International already has a 90% buyback policy for all products including sales kits purchased by a salesperson.

One of the most difficult sections of the proposed rule is the seven day waiting period to enroll a new distributor. To include a seven day waiting period puts an unnecessary and unfortunate negative light on any legitimate opportunity. I am not asking folks to buy a gun, I am merely telling them the benefits of our product and how it may help them.

Xango's sales kit only costs $35. People buy TVs, cars, and other items that cost much more than that and they don't have to wait seven-days. Under this waiting period requirement, I will need to keep very detailed records when I first speak to someone a prospect and will then have to send in reports to my company. I am a small home business and this burden could destroy my business.

Finally, the proposed rule requires the disclosure of a minimum of 10 prior purchasers nearest to the prospective purchaser. I am glad to provide references, but in this day of identity theft, I am very uncomfortable giving out the personal information of individuals (without their approval) to strangers. Women in my organization may be subject to sexual or racial harassment so this part can't go in at all, unless the FTC passes an addition to this rule

Prohibiting sexual or racial attacks related to this disclosure. In the end the rule must bind the FTC to take direct enforcement action on sexual and racial attacks with a special unit assigned to monitor actions related to the disclosure forms.

I have seen many scams on the Internet and been approached by many crooks because of my success. This rule will do nothing to stop them. They hurt my business! This rule will not stop Crooks – they violate the current rule all the time. But I am a good American citizen and it will hurt me. Thank you and please help me.

Sincerely,

Samuel J. Oaks